

Tabbal's Distance Learning Classroom Instructions

As we transition to distance learning and a virtual classroom, please know that we all need to be patient. This is a new classroom format, and a learning curve for everyone. With that said, I am truly looking forward to providing you with math instruction in this new virtual format over the next few weeks.

On Wednesday/Thursday I will have a scheduled Zoom Classroom meeting by period to go over assignments, lessons, and answer questions. I will also be available to provide extra help through Zoom, during my office hours on Friday.

- Each day, at the scheduled time your class meets, there will be a NEW instructional video/and or materials for the day's lesson along with a NEW assignment for you to complete. You will have 2 NEW lessons and 2 NEW assignments to complete each week. You will be expected to watch the video and take notes on each NEW lesson. Please refer to the Unit Schedule on my website or in Google Classroom for your assignments.
- All completed assignments for each week, must be submitted through Google Classroom by 6PM Friday evening.

To submit your completed assignments: Take a photo of your work or create a pdf, and upload it to the proper assignment link in Google Classroom. Make sure your name, period, and the assignment is written clearly at the top of your paper. You must show all your work in a neat, and organized format.

To join your period's Google Classroom:

You will need to sign-in to your Learn account and then enroll in your period's Google Classroom:
